31 March 1960

Mr. William H. Neal
National Director
U.S. Savings Bond Division
Department of the Treasury
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Neal:

Mr. Dulles will be absent from the City for the next several days and has asked me to respond to your letter of 17 March 1960 with regard to the U.S. Savings Bond Program.

You may be sure that we fully appreciate the importance of this Program and welcome the opportunity to discuss possible ways and means to influence our employees to participate more actively.

Our Deputy Director of Personnel, [redacted] is intimately familiar with this Program and has responsibility for its supervision within the Agency. I believe that it would be more profitable for you to meet with [redacted] in the first instance. He will be available at any time and can be reached on [redacted]
